

Cut the cards and laminate them.

They symbolize eternity.

It represents a monster of disaster.

They represent power and desire.

They symbolize where we keep all our problems and secrets.

They symbolize support for our weaknesses.

It represents birth, rebirth and a new change.
It symbolizes love, too.

They represent death and decay.

They symbolize colours and brightness.

It represents the ups and downs in his career as a painter.

They represent death related to sex and the venereal disease,
for example AIDS.